THE PLACUE / al-Tâ<sup>cu</sup>n; by Sa<sup>cd</sup> al-Khâdim; a bilingual edition: English/Arabic; trans. with a critical introduction by S. El-Gabalawy. A daring micro-novel that deals with the political situation in Egypt during the Nasser era, and—in the strongest (and coarsest) terms—condems the regime's immoral methods and obscene cruelty. ISBN 0-919966-73-X; 1989; $6.95.

"... The Plague is a relentlessly political novella which demonstrates, with terrifying honesty, the atrocities of Nasser's regime. ... [it] abounds with sayings, proverbs, jokes, and fragments derived from the rich oral tradition of folklore, making it an important social document ... It also abounds with foul language which is, in my view, highly functional in expressing the spirit of anger, bitterness, and frustration which dominates the characters in their strife for rlease. ... This is a haunting novella of unusual complexity. The more we contemplate it, the more it expands in the mind." S. El-Gabalawy

A LEADER OF MEN / Abû al-Rijâl; a bilingual edition: English/Arabic. With a short critical introduction. The Complete Arabic Text and a lucid English translation of Youssef (Yûsuf) Idrîs's latest and most controversial story. It the first work in Arabic literature that probes the mind and soul of a latent homosexual, and analyzes the odd feelings and peculiar thoughts that torment him. ISBN 0-919966-65-9; $6.95.

EGYPTIAN PROVERBS AND POPULAR SAYINGS (A selection of the best proverbs in Ahmad Taymûr's al-Amithal al-'Ammiyah). This clear an lucid translation of the most popular Egyptian proverbs will enable the Western reader to understand and appreciate many aspects of the Egyptian character, mentality, and world view. The detailed "Index of Themes and Motifs" should help both the general and the specialized reader in analyzing various social attitudes and in comparing different cultural phenomena. ISBN 0-919966-61-6; $6.95.

AVANT-GARDE EGYPTIAN FICTION: THE ULYSSES TRILOGY. An English translation of Sa<sup>c</sup>d al-Khâdim's experimental novel Thulâthiyat 'Ulis, a highly controversial work whose first part, Takhârif 'Ulis, was printed in Cairo in 1986 but not released by its distributor for fear of causing a public furor due to the book's "nihilistic," "irreverent," and "iconoclastic" nature. Translated with a critical introduction by Saad El-Gabalawy; ISBN 0-919966-63-2; $6.95.

"If not suppressed because of its outspokenness and seeming irreverence to the sacrosanct and traditional in Egyptian society, and if it is given a slightly wider circulation in Arabic and Egyptian literary circles, The Ulysses Trilogy will eventually jolt Arabic literature from the doldrams of conventional realism into which it has been mired for the best part of this century... The Ulysses Trilogy is a landmark that heralds a new era in Egyptian fiction ... "A. Cassis; IFR.

INTERNATIONAL FICTION REVIEW

GUIDELINES

Manuscripts are accepted in English and should be prepared, with complete endnotes, in conformity with the second and revised edition of the York Press Style Manual (available from York Press, Box 1172, Fredericton, N.B., Canada E3B 5C8, at a cost of $2.50). Although the York Press Style Manual has adopted all new changes included in the MLA Style Manual, the IFR still uses footnotes with no List of Works Cited.

Following are some additional points to which we should like to draw your attention:

Book reviews are 2-3 typewritten pages; approximately 500-750 words (with no footnotes). Articles and Short Essays are 5-15 typewritten pages; approximately 1500-4500 words.

Spelling, capitalization, and hyphenation are according to Webster.

Quotations should be kept at a minimum. No prose quotations longer than 100 words. No verse quotations longer than two lines. All quotations should be incorporated into the text. All non-English quotations must be translated into English; translators of texts and quotations must be identified.

Footnotes are reserved for bibliographical information (comments and explanations are to be incorporated into the text or dropped altogether). All footnotes should be typed together on one sheet in the form of endnotes.

Frequent references to a specific work should appear in the text and not as a footnote (see York Press Style Manual 8). Footnotes that refer to a previously mentioned or quoted work should include the author's name, or the author's name and the abbreviated title of the work instead of ibid., loc. cit., or op. cit.

Only titles of books, periodicals, and uncommon foreign words (i.e., words that do not appear in Webster's Collegiate Dictionary) should be underlined. Words under discussion, questionable terms, and new coinages should be placed between double quotation marks.
