AUTHORITATIVE STUDIES IN WORLD LITERATURE

A S W L

An unnumbered series from York Press
$6.95 per volume; standing orders accepted

These slim (40-50 pp.) and inexpensive ($6.95) booklets are indispensable for teaching and research; they have been enthusiastically received by scholars and educators, and have made many multivolumed works obsolete.

"So encompassing, concise, and to the point." A. Hsia; IFR
"An excellent and concise introduction." R. Neuhäuser; DS
"Very handy as a quick reference guide." NZSZ

Written by noted scholars and established researchers, each study deals with the life, work, and criticism of one author, and consists of five chapters: I. Biographical information. II. A complete list of the author's works—with publishers and exact date of publication (or first performance). III. A summary of the author's most important works (plot outline, recurring themes, leitmotifs, abstract ideas, etc.). IV. An evaluation of the author's works, and a condensation of other opinions. V. A bibliography of the major publications that deal with this author, and an assessment of each of them.

THE INTERNATIONAL FICTION REVIEW

GUIDELINES

Manuscripts are accepted in English and should be prepared, with complete endnotes, in conformity with the second and revised edition of the York Press Style Manual (available from York Press, Box 1172, Fredericton, N.B., Canada E3B 5C8, at a cost of $2.50). Although the York Press Style Manual has adopted all new changes included in the MLA Style Manual, the IFR still uses footnotes with no List of Works Cited.

Following are some additional points to which we should like to draw your attention:

Book reviews are 2-3 typewritten pages; approximately 500-750 words (with no footnotes). Articles and Short Essays are 5-15 typewritten pages; approximately 1500-4500 words.

Spelling, capitalization, and hyphenation are according to Webster.

Quotations should be kept at a minimum. No prose quotations longer than 100 words. No verse quotations longer than two lines. All quotations should be incorporated into the text. All non-English quotations must be translated into English; translators of texts and quotations must be identified.

Footnotes are reserved for bibliographical information (comments and explanations are to be incorporated into the text or dropped altogether). All footnotes should be typed together on one sheet in the form of endnotes.

Frequent references to a specific work should appear in the text and not as a footnote (see York Press Style Manual 8). Footnotes that refer to a previously mentioned or quoted work should include the author's name, or the author's name and the abbreviated title of the work instead of ibid., loc. cit., or op. cit.

Only titles of books, periodicals, and uncommon foreign words (i.e., words that do not appear in Webster's Collegiate Dictionary) should be underlined. Words under discussion, questionable terms, and new coinages should be placed between double quotation marks.

A BIENNIAL PERIODICAL
DEVOTED TO INTERNATIONAL FICTION

The IFR includes a considerable number of excellent essays on the contemporary fiction of many countries as well as reviews of recently published novels and scholarly works on fiction. It gives authoritative coverage to world fiction.

The IFR is an essential addition to the periodical collection of any library concerned with fiction. It is of special value to seminars on modern fiction and scholars working in the area.
