

A REFERENCE LIST ON CANADIAN FOLK MUSIC

This is a revised and updated version of the reference list that appeared in the first issue of the Canadian Folk Music Journal in 1973 and was updated in 1978. As previously, it is selective rather than complete: it includes most books of traditional songs and most records by traditional singers and musicians, along with some articles on various aspects of Canadian folk music and some folksong records by non-traditional singers.

The published material has been divided into language groupings: French, English, and other, with a general section for works that include songs in two or more languages. Asterisks indicate reference books and items that include fairly extensive bibliographies.

A section on compositions based on Canadian folk music included in previous versions of this reference list has been dropped this time. It was not possible to make this section complete, and it became increasingly difficult to determine which items should be included. Those interested in compositions based on folk music should approach the Canadian Music Centre de musique canadienne in Vancouver, Montreal, or Toronto.

Those wishing a more extensive list of books, articles, and records may refer to sections 5 and 12 of A Bibliography of Canadian Folklore in English, which is available in most major libraries.

Ceci est une version revue et corrigée des références bibliographiques et discographiques parus dans le premier numéro du Canadian Folk Music Journal en 1973 et mise à jour en 1978. Comme précédemment, il s'agit plutôt d'une sélection que d'une liste exhaustive. On y retrouve la plupart des recueils de chansons traditionnelles et des disques de chanteurs traditionnels aussi bien qu'un grand nombre d'articles représentatifs des différents aspects de la musique traditionnelle au Canada, ainsi que plusieurs disques de chansons traditionnelles interprétées par des chanteurs non-traditionnels.

Les publications ont été divisées par groupes linguistiques: français, anglais et autres, avec une section générale pour les travaux traitant des chansons de deux ou plusieurs groupes linguistiques. Les astérisques font référence à des articles et des livres qui contiennent des bibliographies plus ou moins importantes.

La section sur les compositions inspirées de musiques folkloriques canadiennes qui faisait partie des précédentes versions de cette bibliographie a été enlevée. Il n'était plus possible de constituer une section complète et il est devenu difficile de déterminer les items qui doivent y apparaître. Les personnes intéressées par ces oeuvres peuvent toujours s'adresser aux Centres de musique canadienne de Vancouver, Montréal et Toronto.

Ceux qui désirent une bibliographie plus détaillée de livres et d'articles et une discographie plus complète peuvent se référer aux sections 5 et 12 de la Bibliographie of Canadian Folklore in English qu'il est possible de trouver dans la plupart des grandes librairies.
