

Winterthur Portfolio: A Journal of American Material Culture

Building an understanding of American material culture by drawing on America's past arts, artifacts, and architecture

American art is a strong component of American material culture, an exciting area of study whose relevance reaches far beyond this specialized field. It has a rich context that often transcends national borders. The journal emphasizes analytical studies that integrate artifacts into their cultural framework, with contributions from such diverse fields as

art history	anthropology	architecture
American studies	literature	decorative arts
cultural geography	archaeology	folk studies history

Winterthur Portfolio is not a museum bulletin, nor is it an antiques magazine. Nor is it only for curators and preservationists. Winterthur Portfolio: A Journal of American Material Culture is a scholarly journal presenting articles that foster knowledge of the arts in America and the broader cultural context within which they were developed.

Canadian Historical Association

Société historique du Canada

Founded in 1922, the Canadian Historical Association (CHA) is an internationally recognized, bilingual association committed to encouraging historical research and public interest in history, promoting the preservation of historic sites and buildings, and publishing historical works and documents. It lobbies archives, museums, governments, and granting agencies in the interest of historians, particularly on issues relating to the preservation of heritage materials and public access to historical documents. Many members are professional historians, but the CHA also encourages anyone with an interest in history to join.

Membership categories include professional, sustaining, general, student, and emeritus as well as affiliated society and institutional members. All members receive:

- the Association's Bulletin, a newsletter with topical articles, information on forthcoming conferences, fellowships and research grants, and news from historians and archives across Canada.
- the annual Journal of the CHA with the best papers presented at the annual conference;
- an average of two Historical Booklets annually as well as booklets from Canada's Ethnic Group series.

Other services include a subscription service to numerous learned journals, and a defence fund to protect members when legal costs arise from their work.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW OF CANADIAN STUDIES

THE ASSOCIATION
FOR CANADIAN STUDIES
IN THE UNITED STATES

ACSUS, a non-profit organization, encourages the study of Canada at all educational levels and in all disciplines. Through its national secretariat, ACSUS coordinates developments and activities in Canadian studies and works closely with academics, business executives, and government officials in striving for an improved understanding of issues affecting the bilateral relationship. The majority of ACSUS members are university professors engaged in research and teaching about Canada; a growing number represent the corporate sector, the legal community, and government agencies in both the United States and Canada. Institutional members include libraries, publishers, and professional groups.

A multidisciplinary quarterly journal published by the Association for Canadian Studies in the United States (ACSUS) focused on Canada, the Canadian point-of-view, and Canada's place in the world. While scholarly analysis—both interdisciplinary and disciplinary—makes up most of the Review's content, topical discussions of ongoing issues affecting Canada and Canadians are also featured. A wide-ranging selection of book-review essays, shorter book reviews, and listings of books received offers readers an overview of recent publication in Canadian studies. The American Review of Canadian Studies appeals to specialist and general reader alike, engaging Canadian concerns from an American perspective.

Robert Thacker, Editor
St. Lawrence University

Bruce A. Butterfield, Associate Editor (Book Reviews)
State University of New York College at Plattsburgh

The Review is distributed free of charge to all members of ACSUS. Back issues are available, as are back runs for new institutional members.

Revue d'histoire de la culture matérielle

La Revue d'histoire de la culture matérielle présente des articles et des travaux de recherche ayant fait l'objet de rapports critiques, qui proposent différentes façons d'aborder l'étude et l'interprétation du passé par l'analyse des rapports unissant les Canadiens et leur monde matériel. Des critiques de livres, d'expositions et de lieux historiques, des études d'objets et des articles sur les grandes collections canadiennes favorisent l'utilisation de témoins matériels dans l'interprétation du changement et de la continuité historiques.

La Revue est envoyée à plus de 250 universités, instituts de recherche, musées et bibliothèques dans 30 pays. Elle est répertoriée dans America : History and Life, Journal of American History, dans la « Current Bibliography in the History of Technology » publiée dans Technology and Culture, et dans Annual Bibliography of Ontario History. Elle figure également dans la base de données CHIP, accessible par l'entremise du Réseau canadien d'information sur le patrimoine (RCIP).
