Newfoundland and Labrador Studies is a bi-annual inter-disciplinary journal devoted to publishing original essays in either English or French about the society and culture of Newfoundland and Labrador, past and present. The editorial goal is to publish essays which are likely to be of general as well as scholarly interest.

Correspondence regarding essays or reviews should be sent to The Editor or the Review Editor respectively, Newfoundland and Labrador Studies, Faculty of Arts Publications, FM2005, Memorial University, St. John's, Newfoundland, A1C 5S7.

Information about subscriptions can be obtained from the Managing Editor at the above address or at: (709) 737-2144 (voice), (709) 737-4342 (fax), or nlstudies@mun.ca (e-mail). You can also visit us at: <http://www.mun.ca/nls>

We gratefully acknowledge the financial support given by the Dean of the Faculty of Arts at Memorial University and the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada.

Newfoundland and Labrador Studies is not responsible for statements of fact or opinion in the printed essays.

The Editor welcomes the submission of manuscripts, in either English or French. Authors are required to submit an abstract of approximately 100 words.

- 1) Articles should be submitted in hard copy and in electronic format, using WordPerfect 8 or higher.
- 2) Articles should not normally exceed 10,000-12,000 words. The journal uses endnotes rather than footnotes.
- 3) Since the journal is interdisciplinary, contributors may use the citation method usual for the discipline concerned.
- 4) Spelling follows Canadian norms. In case of uncertainty, contributors should consult The Canadian Oxford Dictionary.
- 5) Authors are responsible for obtaining copyright clearances where applicable.
- 6) When an article has been accepted for publication, the author will be asked to make the text conform to the house style, and to sign a consent to publish form. Copyright will rest with the journal.
