SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The editors welcome submissions of scholarly articles on any aspect of Canadian literature as well as interviews with contemporary Canadian authors in whom there is an established academic interest. Submissions may be in English or French; articles should be between 6000 and 8000 words (including Notes and Works Cited), and interviews between 4500 and 7000 words.

Manuscripts must be submitted as an email attachment (Word or RTF) to scl@unb.ca. Submissions are blind-vetted; please ensure that there is no information identifying the author anywhere on the manuscript (including Notes, Acknowledgements, etc.).

For More Information visit our website:
<http://journals.hil.unb.ca/index.php/SCL>

DIRECTIVES DE SOUMISSION

Les éditeurs vous invitent à soumettre des articles scientifiques sur tout aspect de la littérature canadienne ainsi que les entretiens avec des auteurs contemporains canadiens dans lesquels il y a un intérêt académique reconnu. Les soumissions peuvent être en anglais ou en français; les articles doivent compter entre 6000 et 8000 mots (y compris les notes et ouvrages cités) et les entretiens entre 4500 et 7000 mots.

Les manuscrits doivent être soumis en tant que pièce jointe électronique (format MS Word ou RTF) à scl@unb.ca. Les soumissions sont arbitrées, alors veuillez vous assurer qu'il n'y a pas de renseignements permettant d'identifier l'auteur sur le manuscrit (y compris dans les notes, remerciements, etc.).

Creative Writing @ UNB

The University of New Brunswick's Creative Writing Program is one of the oldest and most prestigious in Canada.

---

The "Ice House" where writers have been meeting for over fifty years.

UNB offers a MA program and a new PhD program in Creative Writing, and a wide range of undergraduate courses focusing on fiction, poetry, drama, and screen writing.

Graduate students can join the editorial boards of The Fiddlehead, one of the oldest literary journals in Canada, and QWERTY, our graduate student journal.

FREDERICTON

We offer small class sizes and faculty who work closely with students. Home to some of the best scholars in Canada, the department supports two internationally renowned journals, The Fiddlehead and Studies in Canadian Literature. Our students are extraordinarily successful in obtaining master's and doctoral SSHRC awards and after graduation have, amongst other accomplishments, published books and earned university positions.
