EDITORS' NOTE

With this issue Florilegium: Carleton University Annual Papers on Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages begins a transition both to a new technological process and a new format in the recording of end-note references. Because of this transitional stage, readers will detect some inconsistencies, particularly in references. We ask your indulgence in this matter, at the same time requesting future contributors to prepare their manuscripts according to the latest MLA Style Guide (1985). With some modifications, this format will be followed henceforth.
