

THE INTERNATIONAL HYDROGRAPHIC REVIEW

INTERNATIONAL HYDROGRAPHIC BUREAU
MONACO

Page intentionnally left blank

Contents

□ Editorial

By Adam J. Kerr, Editor 5

□ Articles

- An Eighteenth Century Joint Survey of the North-West coast of America by British and Spanish Surveyors. 6

By Andrew David (UK)

- Seafloor Mapping in the Arctic: Support for a Potential US Extended Continental Shelf. 14

By Larry A.Meyer, A.Armstrong, B.Calder and J. Gardner (USA)

- SHOALS Object Detection. 24

By Eric Yang and P. E. LaRocque (Canada)

- New Standards for Providing Meteorological and Hydrographic Information via AIS Application-Specific Messages 37

By Lee Alexander and K, Schwehr (USA)

- A First Generation ENC Service. 45

By Vaughan Nail (UK)

□ Notes

- Recent Progress in Sub-bottom profiling - the SBP 120 example . 51

By Gwladys Theuillon (France)

- The next challenge of the International Hydrographic Organisation and Hydrographic offices: “Green” ECDIS for the Protection and Monitoring of the Marine Environment . 55

By Parry Oei (Singapore)

- Why a National Hydrographic Office ? 61

By Hugo Gorziglia (IHB)

- How the “Download Generation” will drive Electronic Charting in a New Direction ? 67

By Mike Casey (Canada)

□ General Information

Book review:

“Estimated Sea Floor dynamics in the Southern North Sea” 76

By Leendert Louis Dorst. Printed by Optima Grafische Communicatie, Rotterdam, 2009, 220 Pages, ISBN 978-90-365-2878-8

† Obituary:

Vice Admiral Affonso (Brazil) 77

Page intentionally left blank