

Published and printed by the
INTERNATIONAL HYDROGRAPHIC BUREAU
MONACO
July 1991

TABLE OF CONTENTS

— Obituary — Ingénieur général hydrographe Guy CHATEL (1906-1990) . . . . .	1
— The Controversial Origins of Medieval Nautical Cartography (P. PRESCIUTTINI) . . . . .	7
— Hydrographic Training and Technical Assistance to Developing Countries — Norwegian Assistance to Mozambique (T. SAETHER) . . . . .	25
— The Fiji Hydrographic Service 1970-1990 — A working example of the challenges that face small maritime States in developing a viable national hydrographic capability (I.M. BARTHOLOMEW) . . . . .	33
— Establishment of the Hydrographic Department — The Singapore Experience (P. OEI) . . . . .	47
— Developing Hydrographic Services and the work of the UK Hydrographic Office (P. WAINWRIGHT) . . . . .	53
— Strengthening of the national Hydrographic Office of Sri Lanka — A German technical co-operation development project (U. BIELKE) . . . . .	63
— Hydrography at Hamburg Polytechnic (P. ANDREE) . . . . .	75
— Training Courses in Port and Coastal Hydrography (J.-Y. LE VEN, M. CHAUMET-LAGRANGE and C. FOURCASSIES) . . . . .	83
— Hydrography in Bahrain (G.J. MAY) . . . . .	99
— A Necessary Constraint on the Use of Extended Harmonic Analysis for Tide Predictions (B. D. ZETLER) . . . . .	109
— Assessing the Precision of Depth Data (M. JOSEPH) . . . . .	113
— The origins of the station pointer (S. FISHER) . . . . .	119
— Model for Determination of Cartographic and Hydrographic Priorities (M. GRENIER and P. HALLY) . . . . .	127
— Fifty Years Ago ... . . . .	147