

TO OUR READERS

The « Reproduced » articles published in the « Review » are selected from publications published in seventeen languages.

Language limitations prevent the staff of the Bureau from recognizing many valuable articles of interest to our readers.

Many technical publications containing articles of hydrographic interest are not available to the Bureau.

Readers are urged to call the Bureau's attention to any article noted in their national publications that are of hydrographic interest, forwarding a copy of the article if possible.
