PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

This year the Law Students' Society is enjoying one of its most successful years. The interest taken by the students in the various activities around the Law School is very great with the meetings and various social events well attended.

This publication is in itself evidence of that enthusiasm shown by the student body. The Moot Courts are again in operation after a long period of inactivity. The various committees are under capable and efficient chairmen.

The Law School Ball and Dinner-Dance have been well attended and proved to be very successful. Debating is popular with both the students and the public.

The Executive of the Law Students' Society view with pleasure the fact that many who were unaware that a Law School existed in Saint John are taking notice of that fact.

It is the hope of the Executive that the Law Students continue to utilize the Society for better relations between themselves, the faculty and the public.

DEBATING COMMITTEE

Debating as would seem natural at a Law School, forms an important part of our student activities. A debating society has existed in the Law School since the School's formation.

In recent years U. N. B. has built an enviable reputation in intercollegiate debating but these have been only exhibition debates. The School was not a member of the M. I. D. L. and therefore was not eligible for the Maritime Debating Championship. This fall Gerard LaForest and Ian Mackin represented the Law School at the M. I. D. L. conference held in Sackville. As a result the Law School is now a full-fledged member of the Maritime League.

There are three debates scheduled for the academic year, U. N. B., St. F. X. and Dalhousie being the opposing Universities. An exhibition Co-ed debate is scheduled for the month of January. This will be the first time in the history of the Law School that Co-eds have represented it in an intercollegiate debate.

G. L. F.

The Law School and "Up the Hill" had their first intercollegiate debate November 21 at Fredericton. The resolution was "Resolved, That Newfoundland Should Become a Province of Canada." The Law School, represented by Bill Gibbon and Gordon Fairweather upheld the negative of the resolution. U. N. B. won by a two-one vote.

John Gillis and Dick McKinnon met a debating team from St. F. X. at Saint John on December 9. The Law School upheld the affirmative of the resolution, "Resolved That a Political Union of Canada with the United States Be Accomplished." St. F. X. in supporting the negative won the decision with a two-one vote.
